Applications

Prepare a great scholarship application

Do your research

Show that you understand the background of the scholarship you're applying for, and how it aligns with your study ambition.

Read and re-read the essay statement you are being asked to respond to, and identify the key themes.

Use professional language

Write your application as if you're applying for a job.

Avoid slang and abbreviations, and write clearly and concisely when addressing the questions and criteria. Fill your scholarship essay with keywords/synonyms of keywords used in the scholarship application.

Proofread your application

Double check your application for spelling and grammar and make sure you have all the correct supporting documents.

It's always good to have someone look over your application before you submit it.

Apply for more than one

If they offer lots of scholarships there's a good chance you'll meet the criteria for more than one.

Applying for more than one scholarship can increase your chances of being successful.
